Sponsorship Proposal

Dear prospective Sponsor

We at Commonwealth Pageants South Africa (Pty) Ltd. host the Mrs Universe South Africa pageant annually and it's our goal to bring Wealth to the Community and to create a platform to empower, mentor and support all women in South Africa. Our contestants take part in mentorship and empowerment programs during their journeys to the crown.

We would like to partner with you and your business to create a mutually beneficial relationship and supporting our Semi-Finalist on her journey to the crown. Excellent exposure is offered in return and your business can reach a wider and preferred target audience. The advertising benefits are set out at the end of this proposal.

The Mrs Universe South Africa pageant is a life-enriching program for divorced and married women. Our goal is to empower, inspire and motivate women and to bring sustainable change to our communities. The charitable cause for the competition is Domestic Violence & Abuse and our contestants create awareness on domestic abuse and make a difference in the lives of abused women and children.

On 13 April the Mrs Universe South Africa 2024/25 pageant kicked off and our Semi-Finalists were selected to embark on this empowering journey.

Who we are

Our story begins in 2012 when the current owner, Anel Deswardt took part in the Mrs Commonwealth International pageant in London. She won the title and founded all the Commonwealth pageants in South Africa, Miss, Mrs, Miss Teen and Mr. The company Commonwealth Pageants South Africa (Pty) Ltd was registered in 2013 and hosted the first pageants at The Lyric Theatre in 2014.

In 2018 our company received the licence to host the Mrs Universe South Africa pageant. We crowned our first winner; Melanie Wright as Mrs Universe SA 2018 and she represented South Africa in the Philippines in December 2018. The Mrs Universe pageant is the most prestigious pageant for married and divorced women in the world, over 100 Countries take part in it annually. Monique Weyers is our reigning queen and will represent our country at Mrs Universe in South-Korea in October.

The Mrs Universe South Africa pageant is in its 7th year.
